In Memoriam

In loving memory of my dear husband Arthur Goodfellow who passed away May 27, 1982.

No one knows how much I miss you
No one knows the bitter pain
I have suffered since I lost you.
Life has never been the same,
There is not a day dear Art, that I do not think of you.

Sadly missed
Robina

Lamb, Jennie - In loving memory of a dear mother, mother-in-law and grandmother, who passed away May 22, 1983.

"We travel down a winding road,
A road without an end,
And they who seem so far away
Are only 'round the bend.
Deep in our hearts the memory is kept,
Of a day in May we will never forget."
Always remembered, Iona, Ronald and Family.

Leon Beaudin, 84, dies

The recent death of Mr. Léon Beaudin, 84 years old, brought forth tributes from his many friends in the district and elsewhere. A resident of Huntingdon since 1948, the deceased was a civic-minded citizen who was devoted to his family, his community and to numerous organizations and associations such as the Caisses Populaires, Red Cross, Christmas seals, agricultural groups, church affairs, etc.

Retired a few years ago, Mr. Beaudin always brushed aside those who suggested he diminish his pace. He would then say without hesitation "I want to keep busy and join those who are devoted to their community".

His zeal and efforts were officially recognized and appreciated by the Canadian Red cross Society; he was made a member of the Diocesan Order of Merit by Bishop Robert Lebel for services rendered to the Church. He is the holder of a certificate of appreciation from the Holstein Friesian Association of Canada. Farmers groups, the directors of Huntingdon Fair and many other associations will be forever indebted to Mr. Beaudin for his active participation in their groups, etc. Where the betterment of the community was concerned, Mr. Beaudin hesitated to give the proper support and encouragement.

Many friends and relatives attended the funeral service in St. Joseph's Church, Huntingdon, presided by Bishop Robert Lebel who was assisted by many priests from the district. Mr. Beaudin's grandchildren praised their grandfather during the service. Burial was in Huntingdon cemetery.
