CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Edna Cairncross wishes to thank the staff at the Centre d'Accueil, the volunteers and Dr. Blonde for their excellent care, support and comfort given to our mother over the past 6 years. They are all a wonderful group of caregivers. A sincere thanks to all who visited, sent flowers, food, donations to charitable organizations and messages of sympathy. Your thoughtfulness will always be remembered by the family.

The Cairncross family

The family of the late Margaret (Peggy) Grant, who passed away May 18, 1997, wish to convey our heartfelt thanks to all the relatives, friends and neighbors for their kindnesses, thoughtful remembrances and expressions of sympathy. Many thanks to those who sent cards, letters and food. We gratefully acknowledge the donations made to the Hemmingford Community Library or the Hemmingford Volunteer Ambulance Service.

Joe and Marie, Jane and Mike, Doug and Terry

We would like to thank all the friends and neighbours of our late sister Peggy for their thoughtful expressions of sympathy, support, cards, letters, and gifts of food. Thank you for the donations made in her name to the Hemmingford Community Library or the Hemmingford Volunteer Ambulance Service. We were especially touched by the wonderful memories every one had of Peggy that were shared with us. Hemmingford is truly a caring community.
