TO: Viviane and Russell - In Memory of your Son, Lee.

He was the picture of youth
To be seen at it's best
He strived for the truth and pursued his quest.

Determined and eager
His life pattern was
He was a firm believer
In the righteous cause.

With labour and foresight
He would greet every day
And feared not what might Come into his way.

To leave you so young
Is hard to explain
But in your hearts
He is there to remain.

His constant dream
He was about to fulfill
But fate Intervened
May it be God's will.

Whatever may have happened on that fateful night
My prayers are with you,
Each day and night.

Goodnight, Lee dear, wherever you are
Though so short a time here
You have shown all by far

What a young man with morals and ideals can do
Could it show the way.
be it
Only to a few.

Together you will face the future
With hope and determination
For you will always have him
As your inspiration.
