IN MEMORIAM

SÉNECAL, Adèle - In loving memory of a dear wife who passed away July 11th, 1982.

The midnight stars are shining upon your silent grave.

Beneath it, sleeps the one I love.

The one I could not save.
I miss you and love you very much.

Sadly missed by your husband René

GRADUATION

The family of Heidi Pallett wishes to congratulate her on her graduation from Dawson College's Nursing Program. Heidi is presently working at the Barrie Memorial Hospital. We are very happy to have her back in Ormstown.

Dundee man dead in railroad mishap

A Ste-Agnes-de-Dundee man died accidentally on a Dundee railway line August 26.

James Rafter, 43, fell on the train track. A young family member walking with him was unable to assist him off the track and ran for help.

Apparently the victim was struck before help could arrive.

W.G. Stockwell, 83 dies in Sherbrooke

William Gordon Stockwell of Stanstead, Que., died quietly in the Sherbrooke Hospital on Saturday Aug. 21, 1993. He was 83.

Born in Stanstead in 1910, he was the youngest of five sons of Dr. Henry Perkins Stockwell and Mable (Millar) Stockwell. His father had grown up in Danville, while the Millars lived in Dundee, Que.

Along with brothers Henry, Hermann, Ivan and Walter, Bill attended Stanstead College. After a brief stint at Bishop's University in Lennoxville, he went on the McGill University in Montreal, where he graduated with honors from the Faculty of Dentistry in 1938.

His working life was spent in Montreal, where he practised dentistry in the Medical Arts Building until his retirement and move to Stanstead in 1975. He also lectured for many years at McGill, and was a member of the Montreal Dental Club. In Stanstead in later years he was an enthusiastic member of the local Historical Society.

In 1939 he married Louise Muir Allison of Rothesay N.B. The couple had two daughters: Judith Allison (Taylor) and Lynne (John Hortop) both living in Ormstown.

As well as his wife and daughters, he leaves one brother, Hermann, of Waterloo, Ont.; five grandchildren (Allison Taylor of Guelph, Ont.; Erica Taylor of Marlinton, Ont., and Eric, Owen and Chantal Hortop of Ormstown); and many nieces and nephews.

The funeral service was held Wednesday Aug. 25 in Stanstead. A private interment will follow at a later date.
