CARD OF THANKS

I wish to express gratitude to relatives, neighbors and friends for their cards, flowers and attendance at funeral in memory of my wife Lily. Also to the Ladies Aid of Rockburn for their delicious refreshments. "Thank you" to Rev. Barbara Bryce for her prayers, support and funeral service.

Merrill Farquhar

Thank-you to Montpetit Ambulance and the Provincial Police on the night of my husband, Harold (Harry) Patenaude's death on August 8, 2002. A special thank-you to Phil and Bill, my family, friends and neighbors for the support given to me that night and the days to follow. Thank-you to the Medical Staff of the Huntingdon Medical Centre and the Barrie Memorial Hospital for the care he received during his illness. Thank-you for the donations given in his memory, for the food, flowers and cards received. All was deeply appreciated.

Nancy

We would like to thank all of our families, relatives and friends who helped to organize and attended our 50th Wedding Anniversary celebrations. Our heartfelt thanks for the gifts and for all the beautiful cards and wishes. It was an occasion that we shall never forget.

Kay & Gerry Brisebois

On behalf of the Mailloux and English families we wish to express our appreciation and gratitude towards the overflowing assistance and support extended to us from the local communities during the past several weeks since the untimely passing of Benoit. This has come from many people we know and countless others whom we do not. Thank you and God bless you all.
